EOLAIRE

Updated: November 2, 2017

CANBERRA IRISH LANGUAGE ASSOCIATION

Too contribute a resource please e-mail:
cila.enquiries@gmail.com

This is a directory of external links, websites and pages that you may find useful for independent study of the Irish Language.

LINK	DESCRIPTION	FEATURED CONTENT
http://www.isfeidirliom.ie	'Is Féidir Liom- I can ' (IFL) is a course in foundational Irish for adults who have never learned Irish before or who have little or no understanding of the language.	Lesson 2
http://www.focloir.ie/	A useful English > Irish and Irish > English dictionary with pronunciations in 3 dialects for most words.
http://english.glendale.cc.ca.us/gaelic.html	Easy to understand phrase lists produced by Celtic Harpist Dennis Doyle http://www.digitaldialects.com	Interactive language games aimed at improving vocabulary.
http://talkirish.com/media/	Talk Irish is an online Irish course. The course itself isn't free but there are many useful tools and links which are.	Games https://www.duolingo.com	Free language learning app/website. Join the Canberra classroom or learn independently.
Irish Lesson - Youtube Series	This YouTube series suited to beginners with the kind of clear and accessible pronunciation that helps develop confidence to attempt simple conversations.	Irish Lesson #4 - The Negative of Tá http://toingaeilge.com/	A well complied collection of information on grammar and etymology.	